

SKENARIO 2 (Jumat 18 Mei)

A man was in a digging hole making bricks, when he heard a blown sound from an oven. He saw his friend running with fired clothes. He then poured his friend's body with water. Later his friend was brought to the hospital.

Doctor has examined and found:

BP : 110/80 mm Hg

HR : 80x/mnt

RR : 24x/mnt

BW : 50kg

There was a bulla and burning lesion on whole chest, abdomen, and right superior extremity.

SKENARIO 3 (Jumat 25 Mei)

As a doctor in emergency room, you had a 17 year old male patient. He has had a motor accident. At that time, he still conscious and can communicate well. You saw a wide open wound on his upper arm and there was a great blood flow. His shirt looked wet because of his blood. He felt pain and can't move his arm. His palmar not seem pale and his finger can be moved.

SKENARIO 4 (Jumat 1 Juni)

A 20 years old boy was brought to hospital, because of his road accident. The patient was conscious at that time accident. After arrived in hospital, he was unconscious, doctor found that he look pale, cool extremity, and no open wound, but ther was a tire print on his stomach.

Physical diagnostic found:

Breathing : 34x/mnt

Heart rate : 124 x/mnt

Blood pressure : 70/40 mmHg